

Number of schools.—1840, 632 ; 1870, 1,398 reported.

Number of pupils.—1840, 14,937 ; 1870, 31,093 reported, 49,000 estimated. 24,838 reported by committees ; 6,255 reported by Examiners.

Amount expended for schools.—1840, $41,873.08 ; 1870, $42,862.40.

TABLES AND DOCUMENTS.

The following Tables and Documents show :

I. The general school condition of the several counties. Abstract of the reports of County School Examiners, also copies of letters.

Some of the Examiners present remarks and suggestions of great importance to the Public School system.

II. The general Educational condition of the Townships as far as reported by the Township School Committees, viz :

1. The number of persons between the ages of six and twenty-one residing in the reported Townships.

2. The number of Pupils attending school.

3. The number of Teachers employed.

4. Number of Schools taught in each Township.

5. Average monthly wages of teachers.

6. Number of school houses, and the material of which constructed.

7. Names of Teachers employed.

III. Report of Rev. J. W. Hood, showing the Educational condition and prospects of the colored population.

IV. The condition of Colleges, Academies, and schools aided by the Peabody Fund and various Associations.

1 Detailed statistics and facts.

2 Table, or summary of statics, viz : Number of teachers, male and female ; whole number of students enrolled during the year ; students in Preparatory classes ; whole number of Alumnie ; amount of income from tuition ; amount of income from all other sources ; value of buildings and grounds ; value of ap-